Dedication

In the estimation of Governor Dummer Academy's 2002 graduating senior class, there are few teachers whose genuine care and warmth for his students amount to his. Walking by him on your way to class, it's seemingly impossible to resist smiling at his unusual, yet unforgettable, hello and cheerful disposition. And even on the bleakest and dreariest of days, when his classroom feels as if it could give way to its own bitter snowstorm at a moment's notice, his antic behavior and enthusiasm for teaching keep us actively engaged in learning. Always willing to offer a helping hand and pull his students through their living nightmares of numbers and equations, his eagerness to see us succeed pushes us to constantly strive to reach our true capabilities.

Perhaps his greatest quality, however, is his ability to connect with an extremely diverse group of students. Scholars, athletes, artists, and musicians alike have come to appreciate and look forward to encountering one of his many humble and lighthearted jokes. It's this selfessness that makes his caring personality so sincere and so well respected. A friend to all, his warm smiles and at times goofy grins remind us all to hold onto the simple joys in life and to never lose sight of what we really are: a community.

For helping us all appreciate the true value of a warm hello,
the 2002 Milestone is dedicated to

Where the heck is Bart?

Right: After a weekend of working on class unity, the seniors test their skills in the circle of trust.

Below: Alysson and Jenna take in the view and stop for a picture during the never ending hike up the mountain.

Above: Lingering by the fire truck just before heading home, these boys take the time to think back on all their great memories with one another.

Right: Brantwood proves to be too much for Yuri to handle as he dozes off on the ride home.

Right: Robb, Jyllian, and Brooke catch up after a long summer apart.

Mom, Dad, and Melanie- Thanks for being so great throughout all my life, especially throughout these four years. Ever since the difficult transition in the beginning, you've always been there, encouraging and helping me through everything! You've made me who I am today. It will be hard living without you! Tucker- You're so much more than I could have ever asked for. Thanks for being you and for the memories that will always make me smile. You'll always be in my heart, no matter what happens. Heather- What will I do without my best friend, my dancing partner, my fellow "weasel," and my "uni-brain"? Right when I met you, I knew we would have an amazing friendship. From March break trips to being "varsity dance captains," I'll never forget all of our great times. You'll have a blast at GW. I'll miss you so much but we'll be friends forever. Alyson- Remember our early field hockey days, alone and scared at preseason? I was so happy to know you then. You were my first friend at GDA and you're still my best. Don't forget about Big T's and M&Ms, and countless other memories. I'm gonna miss you but our friendship will last a lifetime! Sam- We've had some ups and downs, but your friendship and happiness have always been important to me. I hope you know I'm always here for you. Meghan and Allison- You're both sweet, fun girls and you've made my senior year so memorable. I just wish we had become closer sooner! Keep in touch- (Allison, watch out for all the Prada bags at Emory!) Vanessa- You've been there from the start, but things just haven't been the same since you left the carpool! You're a great friend and we've shared many good times together (4 years of Latin, going to Maine and visiting Jackson, having "spaz" sessions, and lots more.) To the rest of the carpool: So many memories, so little space! (What's that smell? What time is pick-up? Jesus loves you!) McKenzie- You're a great person and we go way back, but who would have thought we would become such good friends? Kristen- I'll miss Latin with you, even if you won't! Billy- I doubt we'll be getting married (like everyone thinks) but we better stay in touch. You've become one of my best friends, even though you suck as a lab partner! Delia- We've never been tight but I'll never forget a few interesting nights at your house. Dave- You're the sweetest, smartest guy and I missed you junior year. Call me when you make your first million! Mike- Too bad Middlebury didn't work out for us, but you have my vote for president. Enjoy England and keep in touch! Shane- Thanks for always making me laugh. Keep up the yoga! Lenny- I'm gonna miss you and being your "weasel." Chris- I'm so glad we'll be at Colgate together! Sean C- If I ever take a math class in college, I'm gonna need you sitting next to me! Good luck with West Point. Marc B- We had some good times. Too bad we were both so mysterious this year. Taso- I'm so glad you came here. This summer will be great, even though we'll be fighting over a certain someone. Next year you'll have him all to yourself! Have a good senior year. Rachel, Kay, Lauren, Peter, Andy, Tony, Francesca, Diana, Ahby, Alex, Jyllian and more, I'll never forget you! Thanks to the faculty, Mrs. White, Mr. VanNess, Mr. Kelly, Mr. Quigley, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Wann, Ms. Ruhl, & the Walls. Class of 2002, I love you and will miss you all!

Mom+Dad-Thanks for all the love and support. I couldn't have gotten this far without you! I love you both. Sarah-You are my BFF. You have always been there when I've needed you through good and bad. Can't wait till next year and late night hotdogs. Love you! Rachelle-My constant BF and support for 4 years. You have been there thru everything and more. I think we were meant to be friends not to mention dance together. You don't know what you mean to me and I don't know what I'll do without you. Good luck next year-you'll be fine. I love ya! Gerbs-My outlet; you were always there to listen to me and let me vent. I can only hope I did the same for you. I love you girl-Good luck next year! "Jeezum Crow!" "Bizaro World!" "Oh shucks, I didn't teach you anything!" Vanessa-Yo lane 6, meme. Had so much fun with you in track. Good luck next year. Kick some ass! WHAT?! Lenni-Ya Billie! The love of my life. HAHA. What am I gonna do without you? Never forget our boating night:Loopstier. I'll miss you next year. Come visit your women sometime! Love you dear! Meghan and Sparks-I wish I could have known you both better but hey we had a great senior year. You're both awesome and I'll miss you. Good luck! Shane-Who's gonna check my wrists next year and make me laugh? I'll miss you but I'll stop by BU when I'm home. Thanks for being there. John-"Loop…stier" You ever gonna tell me what that is? Billy-Thanks for always making me feel bad about myself. JK. Good luck next year. Dave- Wooly Mammoth? Wet Bananas? Good luck next year. I won't forget you. U-Penn Girls-I'll never forget our trip or the black men. Kick ass next year! Trip, Nicole, and Sam- See you next year! Corbett-You're such a rat but I love ya! Good luck! Good luck with everything. Mr. Metz, Dr. Bradley, Ms. Ruhl, Mr. Weir, Mrs. Connolly Potter, Mr. Ceglarski, Mrs. McLain, Mr. Gerry, Ms. Bromley, Mr. Seufert, Mrs. White- You've all taught me so much and prepared me for what lies ahead. You will never be forgotten. Thanks! Lindsey-YEAT DA BUN! My BFF for 6 years. I can't believe we're graduating. I'll never forget our memories but I know we'll keep in touch. Good luck at U-Mass. I love you! Chris-Where ya been all my life? There aren't words to describe how I feel abut you. It's only been a few months but you've swept me off my feet. You've been there for me in ways no one ever has. I'm gonna miss you like crazy so the phones just gonna have to do. I love you with all my heart babe. Can't wait till Ireland…gonna be crazy! (If it's meant to be, it'll be.) Don't want to leave, but we both know sometimes it's better to go. Somehow I know we'll meet again, not sure where and I don't know just when you're in my heart, so until then smile, don't want to cry saying goodbye.

The Original Andover Car Pool: Rachelle Mckenzie Billy Vanessa Pawan Kristen Rachelle Thirty two half quarters later and here we are, I remember one of our first conversation was about whether or not it was possible to make best friends in four years. Well, I have the answer: It is entirely possible, and I couldn't ask for a better one Heather You know that you have a true friend when there is no question in your mind who you should call when the going gets tuff. It has been a four years of laughter and encouragement, and there is no one I would have rather shared this with Anna Maria Island: Dear Spring Breakers…Allison you saved me from a world that didn't make any sense, and together we created a new one that we liked better, may everyday be a Thursday Meghan It took a little eye brow shaping, but by lacrosse season I couldn't have imagined not being friends, and this is how we will stay for a long time to come Angela singing at birds, discussing useless people, and Team Dunkers make you the missing piece to the party I call life Rachel It all began with an obsession, but don't worry Robin and I'll be in New Orleans to borrow your slacker shirt and to eat cheerios and cranberry juice. Who is Walls With Peanut Butter? Billy Go to the right, ok to the left we go! Its nothing more than a drop of rubbing alcohol on a newly severed limb, or a newly severed anything; that being the "nothing" that was the being. Or just something I read off the hot topics news letter that I don't get but comes in the mail anyway in fact, it was 2 years, I stopped copying math homework in the library with Tom Johnson, a model I hear, Although there are hundreds of books left in this country. Engulfed, there are fans for this very purpose, Peter Bildner you were sitting right next to me as I typed this. Take care. On an orange appetite that left it on top of the table at a restaurant with Ted and Vin eating, luckily I didn't bring any money, although Kerri has some yellow hair on that one. And Luke probably has some red hairs in that one, although Florida is a state, and the state of being was on the flip side of that last year, the bear walk left me walking to school or riding a bike. On a hood scratched Volvo that was green, like the color of my last resignation. Maybe that was when Mark was beating us, in a mad rage of fits, although phish is not a band anymore Mark still chose them as the beating music of choice. And tucked away under the soft plaid, the past crew that I once knew I wish it all well, keep the water coming, Tucker, Watson, Matt, ras the only way the reading will count is if you read this, I doubt anyone will, tucker might. And maybe there is a way to stare at a computer for about a day and not do anything perfectly normal, but maybe not, maybe we will laugh on the outskirts of that beautiful meadow that we spent so much time at, the music was magical. And through all this on the top of a yellow brick high tower with a catapult wrist band that shoots paintballs, the peace of mind with the people staying behind, with optimism of course the pizza at flatbread is still very good, and now that your not vegan I expect you to take full advantage. And if you pop in the cd and listen to it, it might make some sense, or maybe just listen to Wann. Stow how lots of cds, and records and all that other stuff and he makes sense? So..i guess I just hope to get the point that I hope mike remembers that special night in DC. I think we slept in the same bed? I know Ted does. And as an ambassador to the colonies created I hope that there is some exploitation that happens, you know how that goes on the record for stealing, thanks for everything Mr. Oxton. Noel. And carter too. So all in all its funny how it gets sentimental, because it does and I will miss you all and I hope I get to see you all even the kids from the middle east, mainly Hossein, yah this is getting long… So to everyone I was close with Peace to you all and take care… If I forgot to mention your name, well then take it as a memory thing, since I have a good one. And to my Mom and Dad and Lucy and Jessica and Ted and Vin and Woods and Taylor and Kerri and Peter and Lexi and Noel and Simon and Phil and Almy and Mrs.Rokous … the list could go on… I love you all... peace

To my Family- Thanks for always being there and entertaining. You've given me plenty to talk about when I go on Oprah. J I love you. Mom- You taught me the importance of having time alone and learning strangers' stories. Dad- Now I know the importance of road trips, adventure, and presentation. Mike- I have laughed with you more than anyone else in the world, and most of it was more bizarre than funny. Laura- You've always been there to talk despite the distance. Won't forget rollerblading through NYC at 3 AM and the frozen hot chocolates Popo- Snork. Now, you're all alone and you can't have my bedroom! Laugh your way through hard times. It'll make life easier. JennyO- Beans…and a rabbit. Ahh..the profound thoughts gathered from subtitles. I always read when I'm with you, funny how that works? We'll always be golfcart buddies. Alex- Adventuring was always fun, Happy's, Cruisin' Exotica, Essex. You've been my best friend through it all and I will always love you. Take of Valkor and the fishies for me. We will meet again further down the road. Holly- Late at night, the voices inside my head get really slow. Nailpolish and rotting apple, if that isn't the worst smell in the world. Thanks for the trashy gourmet magazine lady book, it provided much needed direction and always remember FG's do not stalk. Kirsty, Bethany, Lakshmi- Sexy background singers! You got me through Doherty and all that other stuff. Zoe- Gladys, is there any place left on the planet that hasn't been scarred by our embarrassing exploits? San Francisco, Breckinridge, South Carolina, DC. Chiquita! Francesca- Scoooter, you were always my favorite dork. If you wanna be a buspainter when you grow up, you could be a buspainter for NASA! Only we have experienced the true happiness of living in the hab, aluminum ceilings and all. Promise we'll make a trip back to Alabama come the summer of 2004? Diana - Wingding! We survived! And in one piece. I'm glad I could double as you shrink and your friend, it was always interesting. Not to mention you always put up with my somewhat obnoxious dedication to the truth. But only some truths, right? Remember God kills a kitten everytime…We'll always have Journey, the Flying Roosters, and matching cars. Lucy- Inverted OompaLoompa. The only one who truly appreciates country and the resonant frequency of my car. I don't think our relationship would have worked so well if we hadn't spent half of it angry with eachother. But it was fun, wasn't it? We'll meet again at the 2006 Bobsledding trials. Jocelyn- Potterybuddy, thanks for always letting me destroy your artwork. Why is that we were the only ones who ever showed up for breakfast? I won't forget your birthday. Askanazi- I'm glad you made it to NH. Thanks for the laughs. Kristen- Favorite person and bowling rival, we survived the Andover limo together. You always made me smile even through the rejection letter fun. Curran- MaxiMe, You are so great when you don't let yourself get in the way. Thanks for all the enlightening talks, I've always liked hearing my own voice. Don't Worry, Be Happy. Extraneous Folk I am going to miss- Cory (honorary senior),Amrit, Gerbetta (still working on that poem), Billy and Rachelle (see you guys at the wedding), Dante, Tyler (Investment Club), The Bruisers (especially Stirling), Sparks (yearbook), Megalu (Hockey and throwing snowballs at the snowplow), Mumu, Justin, Stormy, Davitt, Lundy, Congreve, SamTam, SammyH.Thanks especially to- Doc Bradley, Wann, Mr. McLain, Mr. Oxton, Mr. Leavitt (even though you killed Stephen Hawking), Señor Calvano, Mr. Karin, Bob and Mickey, Chrisathebookstore, Ms. Ruhl, and the Health Center.

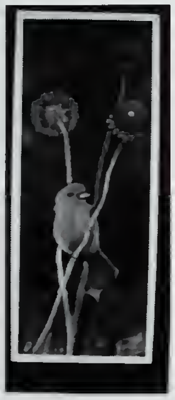
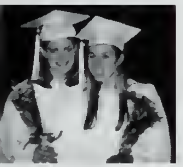
Joyfully rejoice; it has been a long time. Sometimes it seems like it has been forever, other times, a small piece in a puzzle that is infinite. I do not Owe anyone gratitude for my survival because I am who I am. Though my body and mind are, and always will be Changing, fluctuating, how I see myself does not depend on others perception and is deeper then what even I can see in the mirror. Yet I gladly give and Extend, my thanks to all who did not make me myself, but through thoughts fully expressed or thinly veiled, helped me see who I am. For those that supported my follies, covered my weaknesses and taught me long Lessons in self worth, it was much appreciated. Through all the trials I was put through, I hope I tested well because I am rising up, gliding over a panoramic view of the world, a Young and sheltered, altered image that I have acquired, created through my Numerous experiences. Soon, maybe earlier than later, faster then slower, I will discover my own Secrets and understand my reasons, my responses to any situation. But who knows what makes me, or anyone tick, tock; the Clock runs on, runs out of time. It's over, done, this chapter of my bumpy, Hiccupping life has written its final sentence, the ending statement, only to begin again. It is time to move on, move out, keep reading, and turn the page. New and Exciting stories lie ahead, transcribed and Interpreted as life rushes onward, Neatly flows over rocks and lazily floats on calm lakes, then crashes haphazardly down waterfalls and Trickles on and on. Who knows where this is going, what is Around the next bend, except, eventually, the Universal ocean with its rim of sandy beaches, flashing waves rumbling like thunder on sunny days or in the illuminating moonlight. Breaking over and over with the pulse of eternity itself.



If…
~Rudyard Kipling
"If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same:
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop to build 'em up with worn out tools…"

Then you are a HERO.



McKenzie- Wow, can you believe we made it? Thanks for all the great times, hanging out in Salisbury, going to Essex, watching movies, our senior year Disney trip, driving down south, and just getting to spend time with you. Never forget how much I love you. Trevor- Dude, remember to take some time off from work once in awhile and keep in touch. We had some good times man and I'm sure there is still plenty to come. Treacy- My co-president of the cool kids club. Random adventures with you to home depot, Putnam pantry, and beyond were definitely some of the best times of my freshman and sophomore years. Val- Thanks for being there for me sophomore year. You were an amazing friend and I still can't believe how much fun we had together. Curran- Hey Dude, don't forget the Germany trip. Lucinda- You were the best wrestling manager ever. It was awesome hanging out with you, playing Frisbee, chilling at dunkin donuts, watching movies, and just having fun. Keep making those starburst creations and don't forget about me when you go back west. I also wouldn't have made it through GDA without: Diana (for all those parties at your house), Jocelyn, Francesca, Marienna, Kristen (my Bio buddy), the rest of my Bio class (sure I'll see you next year Heather and Nicole, rrrrright Ashley), Sam, Stormy (physics class), and Little Mike (spiderman opening night). To Patti, Simon, Tina, Yori, and the rest who have already graduated- You guys definitely made the high school years a lot easier. Good luck to all the underclassmen who still have some time left at GDA: The wrestling team guys, my German class, Cooper, and of course, Amrit (next year I'll have to do my own homework). Thanks also to all the teachers who helped me along the way, especially: Mr. Wann, Mr. Quigley, Mr. Leavitt, The McLains, Dr. Scheintaub, Mr. Stowens, Mr. Seufert, and Ms. Ainsworth. I apologize if I did not mention anyone but there is only so much space. Good Luck to everyone next year and remember to keep in touch.

Sam - "squirrel master" – thanks for those timberlands, they're madd comfortable. Adam - "barbs" – hehe, you've made pretty good progress from "the-man-they-call Barbaro" to now. I'll never forget the holes you left/made in Phillips. Lucy – I wish we could have gotten to know each other sooner, but we developed a good relationship over senior year and I really hope we stay in touch even though you're gonna be at Louis and Clark. Mike "Carve-'em up" Curran – Well, we've had some good times. Lacrosse for all four years, freshman year English class debates with Candy, trips off campus for dinner when ever the food was really bad. Don't worry about the Pathfinder, I know you couldn't have done anything about it even if your mom does call you "Crash-em up Curran" now. Francesca – you're TINY!!! Maybe now you'll believe me. You're probably the one person at GDA that understands me the best. You'd better keep in touch with me while you're at MIT or I'll be pissed. Alex – I'll never forget when you any Bemmy and Trig would give Barbs the Phillips treatment. Langella – I get the feeling that my alarm clock will probably keep waking up people down the hall before me. Shane – Well, its been a long four years but it's over. We started off at GDA as roommates and I hope we'll always be in touch. Rachel – I will never forget getting "slimmed on" by that garbage can freshman year or all the years in orchestra classes we survived together. Aaron – Lance, Face – FACE!! Don't get so pissed at bad golf matches dude!!! Its not worth it. Brent – You were right before, we should have chilled more often but it was too late by the time we realized that. Let me know how you're doing when you're chillin in Georgia and I'm freezing my ass off in New York. Tex – "s'oh med pmip" is my message to you. Stay chill and keep doin what you've been doin. Gabe – I think I still have a couple bags of Wahoo's if you ever want 'em. Just let me know. Try not to loose as many books in college!!! Woods – I'll hold onto that picture of you and the flag from the Formal. If you ever run for government, let me know and I'll make sure that you have it for your campaign. Mom – Thanks for all the support. I hope I can show you someday how much it meant to me. Dad – Thanks for being at all the games to support me, even when we weren't talking it was nice to know that you were in the crowd Rob – Thanks for the doctors notes!!! Jeff – We've never spent as much time together as I would have liked, but I always knew that you were there for me if I needed you. Chris – I'm really glad that you are around more now and I'm looking forward to taking Danny and Ryan out fishing one day. Maxann – I love you babygirl. I care about you more than you probably know. Will – Just 'cuz you got through the Air Force don't think that you're tough cuz I'll still mess you up! I don't care if you're 6'5 and like 230. You're like my brother so anything you need man, you got it. Oli Hey dude, I'm madd tired. Last weekend was CRAZY!!!! How do you spell "eh ih … eh ih" anyway??? Shout-outs: Brooke, Chum, Ted, Diana, Davitt, Pete (JV LAX!), Husie-Puse, Gould, J Grizz, Rob M, Nobbs, Mo, Yuri, Lacrosse Team, Wrestling Team, Family Guy, Bildner., Laura, Doug, Johnshannon, Mitchell, Michelle, Rae-Beth.

I wish I could find some witty or sarcastic quote by Mark Twain about leaving, but I can't find one. Trying in general to find something meaningful and closing to say about my GDA experience is hard enough, for it's been quite an experience. I have had some difficult moments, but in general the past four years have been great. I can say that I am beyond proud to have gone to GDA. I can remember the first time I put on the Cardinal red and the feeling it stirred inside me. This feeling of great pride and sense of brotherhood has been there every time I put on that red jersey and went out to be a "Gov". My only real goal as a GDA student has been to be one of the people who shovel the coal in Big Pete's Crimson Red Locomotive.

Moving on and not making that twenty-one minute drive every morning is not a concept I have really come to grasp. I have come to love the buildings, the fields, and the school I have at time taken for granted. More importantly I have grown to know a great number of people whose friendship I cherish more than anything else I know. The adventures, trips, and moments we have shared have left me with many fond memories. For your companionship, support, and kindness I thank you.

As we all know the past four years were supposed to help us mature and become more independent, yet what really happened was that we learned to live somewhere away from home with more rules and regulations. Although our class was not the friendliest all these years, we have stuck together and only lost a few along the way. These years have been a learning experience for us all and we will remember them for the rest of our lives.

Mom, Dad, Joan and Jill thanks for sticking by me and helping me make it through. You were there to convince me into finishing the last years and getting it all over with. Lauren we have gone to school together since we were five and we are still friends after all these years, now it's time for us to depart and go our separate ways. Make sure you keep in touch and Have fun at Gettysburg!! Abby we've had our happy moments and we've had our sad and you know that you'll always have a shoulder to lean on! I learned that the greatest thing about high school isn't the parties or the drinking or the hook-ups, it's the friendships. I learned that sometimes the things we want to forget are the things that we most need to talk about. I learned that letters from friends are the most important things and that sending cards to your friends makes you feel better, but basically I just learned that my friends both old and new are the most important people to me in the world and without them I wouldn't be who I am today. So this is a thank you to all of my friends for always being there. I love you. Seniors- "Somehow I know we'll meet again, not sure quite where and I don't know just when, you're in my heart so until then smile, don't want to cry saying goodbye" – The Muppets Fam- I'm out like trout no doubt! Rals- Howz ya DKNY! Kinkadia. Kristina- back to bein a freshman hopefully now u realize what mistakes not to make Brad- you saved me! I definitely owe u big time for that one Moira- Welcome to the jungle! I just had to say it. Stay tall girly Ward- oh wow, we're too much alike, kinda scary when u think about it. Anyway, don't let people get to u, the only persons opinion about you that matters is your own Shanahan- when I come back we can ice, ride, and chat about… Donny (hun)- sometimes when you hold out for everything you walk away with nothing, take more chances and you'll find what you're looking for Woods- Tenerife/Madrid '01, good times good times Macoul- always remember to smile, you're more fun when you're happy Michelina- Mic-Reggie! Keep moe under control Gumshoe, I don't wanna hear any disturbing stories Ali- Oooo, he's hot! Always remember all the hot kids I introduced you to. Luv ya babe Good Luck: Francesca, Candy, Robbie, Jota-Jota, Jairo, Guido, Oi, Alana, Mikey-O, Julie, Leslie Clunie, Deef, Dante, Maura D., Keppa, Christian Peng, Bobby, Gummi, and Boo-Boo. And to the people who were once a part of my life… Everyone always says you don't know what you've got until its gone and for some of you I realize that what we used to have was pretty good and the fact that we don't have it anymore doesn't really phase me. There are some people I used to be friends with that I still think about and wonder how it came to be this way but I'm not gonna let it hold me back. There are so many different things to do and people to meet outside of my little world and all you did was open one more door for me to step through and for that I thank u. I'm thankful for what we used to have and what we no longer have because both have put me a step ahead in my life. "You may shoot me with your words, you may cut me with your eyes, you may kill me with your hatefulness, but still like air, I rise"

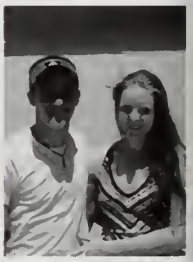
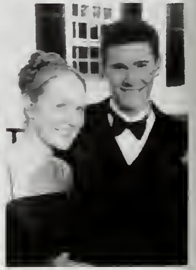
If you don't visit me next year I'll beat you up because I still can even though you're taller than me now. Yuri- It all started at unity days when you couldn't canoe to save your life. Through it all: Ceglarski's history class, drivers ed, making fun of me in Russian with Arcadi, the game, spilling water, phone complexes, English, skiing (you got taken out by a chairlift and you passed out), PINK, "Kate.... What are you doing?", "Off the Wine". I figured out my mom was right, you are a keeper. Even though we had some falling outs, sophomore year(your fault) and junior year (my fault), you have become my best friend and much more. Thanks for always reminding me to chill and relax. I will never forget the amazing times we've shared and I'm sure there will be many more to come. You have put a permanent smile in my life and I love you so much. Erin-FH brought us so close, even though I accidentally got Shedo written on your pants, sorry. Francesca: We've been in so many classes together here, but outside all that is where we've had the most fun. Next year we'll hang out together again I'm sure, whenever the pressure of MIT is starting to get to you, just come on over to Harvard and we'll chill… Jocelyn: Remember sharing a "box" in chem class? Giving "The Look"? And my one ill-fated attempt at running track? We've had a lot of good times here and I hope we see each other a lot this summer and beyond… Paige: Duffy's Love Shack. Enough said… We've lounged on the beach and danced all night with James the Pirate; you've been my dorm buddy for 3 years, and we've had some of the funniest times together. Have fun next year and don't forget to visit! Boynton: You've been a great dorm and so much fun to be around. Good luck next year girls! Angela: My wonderful co-proctor…aka Britney. We've had a lot of fun in here this year; it will be hard to leave this little house. This experience has been great, and I'll never forget your endless energy and humor. Good luck in everything, and don't lose touch. Lars: So much to say and so little space… You've been there for me through the worst times and we've shared some of the best. FLIP, Brantwood, Vietnam, the list goes on but some of the most important things have just been the day to day fun and laughs we've had together. Good luck in Cali, just don't forget about me out here on the East Coast… Justin: We've goofed off a lot, and you're one of those people who never lets me take myself too seriously and always sees the fun in everything. Remember, you've always got a home in Rockport, even on Thanksgiving =) Stormy: You're a funny guy, Stormy…Remember: the pumpkin suit, going "bowling" with minimar, driving to Dartmouth, and all the other wacky stuff I feel compelled to do when around you =) Mrs. Guy: I came into GDA despising the French language, but through two years of your class I have learned that J'adore le subjonctif and that anything is possible if you have someone dedicated to support you. Mr. Van Ness: Thanks for helping me turn 10 sheets of plywood into a "sexy boat," I couldn't have done it without your help. JR and TA: Only two faculty members would have the strength and courage to take a bunch of GDA students into the wilderness to attempt such dangerous activities as Ultimate Frisbee. You've been the greatest coaches, teachers, advisors, and dorm parents, thanks so much. Zan: "Sister, you are close to my heart. So many dreams we've shared, all the laughter and love. You tell me your secrets, I tell you mine. A lover of life, kind and true. Beautiful sister, yours spirit is strong. We'll always be together in our dreams. Our hearts will stay, side by side." We've gotten so much closer over the past few years, and even though now might seem like a tough time of your life, you'll get through it. I'll always be here for you, thanks for being such a good sister. Mom and Dad: Thank you. You've done more for me than I can ever explain, always being there to help me make the most out of every day and learn from every experience. You both have taught me more than any books or school could ever dream to. I could never have achieved anything without your amazing support. You have made me who I am and I will always love you.





Mama and Papa: Thank you so much for giving me the chance to come here to GDA. It was certainly an important time in my life. I know I was hard to deal with, but thanks to your support, I made it. I love you both. Sonja: Thanks for being sympathetic and coming by every once and a while. I love you so very much and hope that we can stay as close as we are forever. Justin: You're one of my best friends and I count on you a lot. I am so excited to be near you next year in Cali. Good luck at Harvard next year, and don't worry; I will come by and visit. John and Emily: Good luck to you both. I can tell that you both are very much in love and it hurts to go through this time of the year. You both were great friends. John, thanks for making soccer season so much fun. Cush: Remember not sot stay up to late playing computer games. Bobby: Hey, now you can stay up to 10:30 because you are a sophomore; you're moving on up. The rest of Phillips Boys: Good luck to you all next year; living in an upperclassmen dorm will be a lot different. I had a great time with you all. Ox and Brace: Thank you so much for your support, you kept me distracted from the painful things in my life. I enjoyed both of your classes and found my artist side. Neli: I really enjoyed spending time with you in class and on the soccer field. It was a time of my life that I won't forget. Mr. Kelly: Thanks for being my advisor throughout my time at GDA. Mich: You truly are one of the coolest persons I know. To everyone who knows me, I am you and you are me. There are so many people who have helped me grow into the person that I am today. Mom and dad, I love you and I want you to understand that though I may not be around home much, you are my home. Thank you for all your help along the way, mom I'll never forget telling you freshman year that I'd actually gotten a girlfriend! Dad and Grite, thank you for teaching me about a sense of humor, unfortunately for you guys you're going to have to deal with it now. Lars and Justin, g.d. and reeser, big and 'lil bud, wow. I never saw how much we'd changed, or how we'd do it all together. I love you guys… in a brother sense. Justin, man, good luck with your family and thank you for always helping me out. By the way, I'm still mad you and Val made out while I was trying to sleep. Lars, we lost each other a lot senior year, and I'm sorry. You've been a great friend, and together we destroyed john in Suck It!! Johnjohn, hahaha, I can't even think about you without laughing. Just keep having fun and don't worry about anything. I'm definitely going to visit. Lucinda, you are such a vibrant and beautiful person, don't ever lose it. If you ever get bored at Lewis and Clark, call me and we'll play the rape of Lucritia, I call funny face! Wilson, you are seriously a funny kid, just don't forget that there's an incredible world passing by outside. Michael Davitt, though BFO never got off the ground, it's ok. I'll never forget our talk about girls and all, or the smiley club. Jocy, I'm sorry I preached so much, I wanted to give you what I was given. Enjoy college, get laid, cut loose and piss off your parents. Cory, come to Vandy, it'll be a blast. You'll always be my angel and if any more guys try to treat you like trash tell me. Jill, I have found that all that shimmers in this world is sure to fade away… We had some great times and I'm sorry it ended the way it did. You were my first love and I'll never forget you. Marienna thanks for letting me stay over so much, enjoy Harvard and just stay chill. Tell mini I said hi. Mikey A, I really respect you for all you've gone through and wish you well in college. Hey, how come I was only invited to one risk party??? fl Alex, if I didn't hate you for taking biology, I'd say you were a really chill and fun kid, but you need to scare tours more often, it's good for the karma. Mr. Werner, thank you for helping me with everything, as an advisor, dorm parent, teacher and friend, you have taught me so much about life. Lundy thanks for getting me started on guitar! Have a great time with Katherine and never stop laughing. Franky you're NOT FAT. Being jacked is hot, hence why everyone hits on you. Enjoy MIT and don't forget we agreed that if you take over the world, you will split it with me. Shelley meeting you was like dying and going to heaven… and then they decided it wasn't my time and instead introduced me to a really chill Brit. Bear bbbbbeeeaaaarrrrrr. Vin don't ever let the man take your brilliance. Mr. Oxton you're an amazing person and if anyone deserves the happiness you possess, it is you.

Sometimes, when there are many things to say, I find myself short-spoken. I dread writing these things because there is nothing I could write in 600 words that could express the gratitude and love I have for the people in here. This, although inadequate for the things I need to say, is an attempt to stretch my loss for words into something more substantial. First to my grandpa, where, I quote my youth, "Papa, are you the smartest man in the world?". Growing up is when you figure out the closest person to you isn't the smartest man in the world, and sometimes I took it out on you, and I'm sorry. I owe you everything, I respect no one more, and I love you . . . much more than just a grandpa, but a father. I am your son, Papa; although many times I made it so obvious that was the last thing I wanted. Nonny, there is a mystery between us that no one has figured out, but it is apparent that our bond is stronger than anyone had ever guessed. Thank you, and I love you; if not for your support I would not be here. To Lars and Stormy, you are not just friends, you are brothers. This by no means is closure to our friendship, just because we don't live with each other any more doesn't mean we are ever going to stop being brothers. You are my greatest friends, my greatest gain in life. Thank you. Stormy, I feel like we have grown up together, known each other our entire lives. Lars, I feel a bond of similarity between us that I hope will never die. I can't wait to our college years together in California. You being there single handedly gives me the biggest high about college. You guys are more than the best, we have been through everything together, and let us never forget our connection. To Mr. Oxton, who I remember showing my first roll of film to. Grabbing and shaking your arm I said, "I really like this photo stuff. No, you don't understand, I really like it." You started a never ending roll of film in me, one that will never be overexposed or poorly printed . . because you taught me better. But more than a great teacher, you are a friend, a mentor; you are the Ox. I have never met any one like you, so balanced, so in love with everything. You perhaps are my greatest example of a loss for words. I hope we will always remain close, and I can't wait to send you my first roll's of Mel Gibson. Mr. Brace, you are like the energizer bunny, but when your battery goes low, you always wake up tomorrow with full life. You are the force behind so much of the great art that goes on here. You always had faith in me, and you single-handedly brought me from stick figures, to real life imagery, not to mention you too were my friend. Thank you. Rebecca, you are part of a defining moment in my life, and you mean the world to me. . . never forget that. Mari, Mr. Mar, Mega Mar, Mrs. Mar, Thanks. Ms. Ruhl, I have learned so many valuable things from you, and I just wanted to say thank you. There is so much more to say, just please always keep in touch. Much Love.

You both have a lot of potential and make sure that you don't take it for granted. I am always going to be there for you and if you need anything you know how to find me. I will miss you guys. Mr. Leavitt: I did it! Thank you for always being there to help. Vanessa: I love hanging out with you and you are such a great friend to have. Mom & Dad- as parents you guys are they best. I want to thank you all for you have given me, and that I am grateful to have parents like you two. Maybe someday I will have the chance to give you back, what you have given me, but for now, all I can give you is my love. I love you Mom and Dad, you both have made me so happy. Wilson-TUNG, you will be a very successful man; I know it, because I know you. College will be fun, but what will I do without you bud. Five years. Has it been that long? RIT is a good school, too bad we won't be going to the same school again. I guess it gives us a challenge, to see how strong our friendship really is. I will miss you Tung. Wa-ein-ni!!!! Carl- Hi Knees, Burl, Beefcake, WOW your jacked. Let me see you flex…Ooo look at those biceps. HAHA you're a funny guy. I am very glad that you are my buddy. I enjoy the things we do, our random fights…HAND GRENADES!!!!!! You may not know this bud, but I am going to miss you a lot. I will see you soon, Best Bud. Emily- You are my Princess. I will miss you, more than I can imagine. Believe me babe there is no one else in the world I would rather spend the rest of my life with than you! Love is a funny feeling, and I like it, a lot. I could say so much to you babe, but I feel that you already know that. I will miss you Em! Oh Yeah, by the way…I know our love is going to last, forever. I LOVE YOU EMILY!!!!!!! Stormy- Andrew…that is your name. I know you are a funny guy and a very smart one too. Do you like cheese? How about eating cheese while riding a llama? Hmmm…now there is a challenge. Stormy you are very random. The jokes and stories you tell make no sense, but that is of no importance. It is your facial expressions and humor that capture me and tend to make me laugh like a machine gun. I will miss you a lot bud, I do not know if I can survive college without you, well we shall see bud, keep it touch. Lars- Lars buddy, times have been rough for you, and I am glad to see that you are getting to be a man. It's great to see that you want to be responsible, and make your decisions. I have had many memories with you that I will never forget. I will miss you a lot bud, wherever you may be. Keep on smiling bud; it gets you far in life. Justin- The most persuasive of us four, you are very suave bud. You have no trouble in getting what you want. Like women…hmm lets see…yeah that's what I thought. You should be a businessman, because you have great people skills, or at least I think you do. I am going to miss you buddy. Hasta luego bud bud. Lundy- You're a readhead? I would have never noticed. Keep up being red man I will miss you! Jill- Jill Jill, aren't you glad to be in my senior page…hehehe, you must be popular! I wish you the best, Jill Jill I will miss you! The Group- for the people I tend to hang out with, it has been a good three years, I will miss you all, and hope to see you all in the mere future.

John Thomas. My best friend at GDA. Although he always pushed me to do thing that is against my will, I still like him. As we graduate from GDA. I know that I will miss him at lot. For the past four years I have seen him everyday in my life. Most of the time he is the first and the last person I saw in the day. He became part of my life now. All of a sudden, he will be gone in my life. I know I will miss him a lot. Especially, he is going to Rohde Island and I am going to Rochester, New York. We will be separated apart for a long distance, but I believe we will still have chance to meet each other. For John he is a funny guy. I consider myself a close person. He is the one that introduce me into the GDA community. I thanked him at lot. He helped a lot for all the common sense stuff. I am ok with all the academic work, but my common sense is as good as a fifth grade kid. I wonder how many jokes I would make if there were no John Thomas. Andrew Storm, One of the few people I met on this campus when I first arrive at GDA. He is a very funny and smart person. He has the ability to make people around him relax and laugh. Ted Chen, the only people who came from the same country with me at GDA. He helped me a lot as the school year went by. There were so many things that I didn't know and didn't understand, but he gave me a hand to push me into the condition. I will miss him a lot. He is going all the way to Ohio. I think I will only see him during all the summer vacation back in Taiwan. Justin Reese, he is a royal friend to have. He is the one that you can console all your question with. All I want to say is that Justin you have brought me a great time at GDA. I will miss you a lot. I might not have chance to see you again unless we all came back for reunion. Lars, he is my buddy. I had a great time with him for these three years. We went to Vietnam together. I had a great time with him. After this year, we will all be separated apart from each other. It will be very difficult to see each other again. I will miss you a lot Lars.

More than anything else I will remember GDA as a place where I met a cast of characters quite unlike anyone else on this earth. Every jerk, jock, geek, punk, stoner, and bud made me think differently and changed my viewpoint on life, if just for a moment. In that way I owe something to all of you, especially to those of you whom I never agreed with (you probably know who you are, I sure as hell do). I'd like to think maybe I did the same for you in my own loud, nerdy, Jewish sort of way. More than anything else, I have come to understand that we are all so much more similar than I ever previously suspected, and this may be the single most satisfying revelation of my life thus far. On to the shout-outs, in no particular order: A-Train: You are friggin weird, there's no getting around that. But I love you for it, and that is why you will forever be A-Train to me. Thanks for chili at Wendy's and turkey at the Agawam. Don't forget, Disney is evil. Evil! Word to the hyperbolic cosine of your mother. McKenzie: You are my date to the reunion, so I guess we will have to keep in touch. Sigh Seriously though, your paradoxically cynical and sunny outlook on life is perhaps the most well-grounded of anyone I know, and you always speak your mind and the truth. Preach the word! Jocelyn: I probably talked to you way too much this past year for our own good, but despite vastly different backgrounds and personalities, I think we see eye to eye on many issues. Clearly this is because we are Jews, and thus enlightened. Oh and by the way, your sense of humor is warped, but that's ok because you laughed at me when you couldn't laugh with me. Thanks. Stormy: You make being a loser cool, and that will forever make you unique. I'm glad that we shared good intentions, strong opinions, frequently-opened mouths, a keen ability to make asses out of ourselves, and a few classes. I feel that we never took ourselves too seriously, yet always knew where we stood and where we came from. Best of all, we never agreed on anything. Diana: You are too friggin talented for this planet, and too caring as well. Our late-night conversations were priceless to me, and I hope to you. Like me, you come from an incredible family, but express yourself individually in every conceivable way. You never cease to amaze me. Francesca: You are better than me in every way, yet I can't help but love you. Your endless energy astounds even me, and the passion you bring to every day life makes those long winter days a little easier to tolerate. You are truly a beautiful person and your smile is brighter than the sun. Alex: I am beginning to believe you are Peter Parker. Somehow, you make the phenomenal look everyday and have managed to keep your superpowers hidden through four years of high school. Don't worry I'll keep your secret identity uhhhh... secret, but sooner or later your superhuman observation, sarcasm, and humor will be discovered. Just remember, with great power comes great responsibility. Mom, Dad, and Joel: I love you. I wake up and breathe for you. Thank you for life. All the Rest: There may not be space for you in this yearbook passage, but there is space in my heart for you all. You have made the last four years the best of my life. Thank you.

I spent a day by the river
It was quiet and the wind stood still
I spent some time with nature
To remind me of all that's real
It's funny how silence speaks sometimes when you're alone
And remember that you feel

Again I stand against the Faceless Man

Now I saw a face on the water
It looked humble but willing to fight
I saw the will of a warrior
His yoke is easy and his burden is light
He looked me right in the eyes
Direct and concise to remind me
To always do what's right

Again I stand against the Faceless Man

'Cause if the face inside can't see the light
I know I'll have to walk alone
And if I walk alone to the other side
I know I might not make it home

Again I stand against the Faceless Man
Lord, I stand against the Faceless Man

Next time I see this face
I'll say I choose to live for always
So won't you come inside and never go away

-Creed

I don't have much to say…all I know is that I leave this place 100% different from how I came in…for that I am grateful.

Juniors

This year, the Junior Class plugged away at their studies, as well as becoming even more involved in the GDA community. Members of the Class of 2003 distinguished themselves in the classroom, on the playing fields and in various leadership positions around campus. Junior year was a major step forward for us. After this very successful year, we are ready to move on and become the senior leaders of the school. The Class of 2002 has left big shoes to fill, but with our talent, school spirit and school pride, will be the senior leaders that the school needs.

GOVERNOR DUMMER ACADEMY

As usual, the year kicked off with the wonderful fun of Sophomore Unity Days: breaking down on the way to Boston, getting lost in the city on the shortened scavenger hunt, and taking involuntary swims in the Ipswich River. Unfortunately, the joyous celebrations of returning to school had to end when we actually had to attend classes. But it was all good fun with many memorable experiences including: sitting in class, and sitting in another class. We learned a great deal of information thanks to our teachers who somehow managed to put up with our class.

The year was near to closing when we put on the infamous Casino Night. John Hearty was able to keep the house ahead as the unbeatable blackjack dealer, despite the rampant chip stealing and Andrew Samel knocking over his roulette table. Class elections were made a little funnier with the unintelligible Novocain speech by new president Ashley Foley, who had just returned from the dentist.

All in all, the sophomore class had an excellent year, with many contributors to the numerous championships won by the school. Although we are relieved to be on summer break and half way through high school, most are fearful of thesis writing and junior year overall, even though it probably won't be as bad as expected.

The Freshmen of 2202 had a fantastic first year at the Academy. We kicked off the year with a lot of optimism and anticipation, eager for the year to begin. First came Unity Days, where we were introduced to our classmates, and through field trips to the State House and Plum Island, classes and sports, we became even better acquainted with each other.

From the freshmen class, we had 21 varsity athletes, of whom 14 were males and 7 were females, not to mention 13 track athletes - which was a real achievement. The FLIP program was also a success this year by creating bonds between freshmen and seniors through different activities such as drug prevention talks and activities on the ropes course.

In May, the "Freshtock" cookout was held outside of Cottage, where there was food, music, and a massive water fight. At the end of the evening everyone was completely drenched and there were nearly 500 smashed water balloons to deal with, but it was all worthwhile.

The best part of being a freshmen at GDA is being able to look forward to three remaining years that include close friendships, faculty that are worth getting to know, and activities that are enjoyable to take part in. We are ready.

GDA Gets Down Wit' It

GDA kicked off the school year with an annual opening school dance. Because it went so well last year the dance was held in the dining hall for the second time in GDA history. A sound system was set up and students like Reggie and Francesca utilized it to its full potential dancing on top of the speakers so that all could see. Seniors and freshman alike had an awsome time letting loose one last time before summer truly faded away. With the enthusiasm present at this event it was obvious that the year to follow would be one to remember.

Haunted Happenings

The Senior Class night rolled to the tunes of karaoke this year as students braved not only the lyrics of some ole time favorites, but a tough crowd of masquerading trick-or-treaters as well. Lenny Ceglarski's well planned evening of song, joust matches, and laser tag kept everyone wrapped up in the Halloween spirit and enjoying themselves. But then again, with Tweety, the Pink Panther, Sylvester, and Barny running around, who couldn't help but smile?

Special Olympics

On November 4, 2001, for the 14th consecutive year, GDA hosted the Special Olympics Massachusetts Soccer Tournament. Over 300 volunteers lived out our school's motto Non Sibi Sed Aliis, by participating in a full day of supporting the athletes. With perfect weather and members of the women's professional soccer team the Boston Breakers as special guests, the day could be considered one of the best in GDA history. Special thanks to Mrs. Hamovit, Dr. Oleszko-Szuts, the Heads and Shadows, and especially to the volunteers. Thank you for a memorable day!

Holiday Concert

After so many years of waiting, the New Performance Arts Center finally opened this past November and was readily accepted by GDA's musical population, who by that point had had enough of performing in the Chapel. The Holiday Concert christened the stage with a performance worthy of the Boston Pops. The Grand Finale of the evening, "The Hallelujah Chorus," even managed to keep the audience involved as they played along with kazoos. The first performance of the new building will not soon be forgotten, as for many seniors it was the first of their last.

The second Voice Concert of the year was once again a truly touching and remarkable display of GDA's vocal talent. Directed by senior Diana Cousins, the night went off flawlessly and filled the Chapel with sweet and harmonious music throughout the evening. With performances by GDA's Chorus, The Firsts, The Nightingales and solos by Diana Cousins, Claire de Lacvivier, Mike Curran, Mike Askenase, Yoshiko Shimoyama, and Jillian Vavlitis among others, it truly was a spectacular event. The entire GDA community eagerly awaits their next chance to hear such a wonderful array of talent.

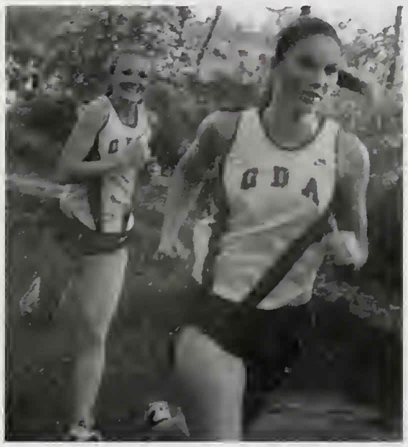
WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY



The women's cross country team of 2002 applied the enthusiasm and spirit early on in preseason to have yet another perfect year. With 14 wins, no losses and the titles of ISL Champions as well as New England Division II Champions, the team clearly had an extraordinary season. Never has so much fun and enthusiam gone into a sport so demanding as with the lead runners of Leslie Clooney, New England Champion and 1st in the ISL, Captain Laura Ellison and Julia Tataronis, as well as the leadership of Captain Gwyn Stokes. The team's togetherness and support of each other carried it all the way to number one and hopefully the unity experienced this year will continue to be a part of the outstanding cross country program for years to come.

The '01 Men's Cross Country Team had a great season despite being a varsity team comprised solely of juniors and sophomores. Returning from last year's team were junior co-captains Allen Cooper and Sean Corbett, as well as juniors John Smith and David Spector, and sophomores Jay Ruais and Brendan Curran. The new varsity harriers included junior Tyler Youngblood and sophomore Greg Ceglarski. The season had its ups and downs but the team never gave up giving 100%. The climax of the season, the two championship meets in November, resulted in an impressive 8th place ISL finish. In the New England Championships, four boys ran under 18:00 for the 5 K race, surprising many with their strong, young talent. The story of this team will continue next year, when the young will be mature; the quick will be even faster; and the Governors will be our pride.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Women's Varsity team had more talent than its record displayed this season. We worked hard in practice and even harder in games. Our Friday night game on Porter Feild, in which we tied a strong BB&N team, was definitely a highlight. Although we struggled in the middle of the season, we triumphed over Exeter, which was a huge win for us. Delia Cox, our highest scorer, and defenseman Mel Bourque recieved Honorable Mentions in the ISL, and goal-keeper Amanda Webb, aka Spider, recieved All League and was selected for the All State Team. Congratulations to the senior leaders Ashley Mastrangelo, Jackie Swansburg, Mel Bourque, Delia Cox, Nicole Robbat, Vanessa Russell, and Gabe Lipman, and good luck to next year's squad.

Men's Varsity Soccer had an extremely successful season this year. Even the outstanding final record doesn't attest to the way we played this season. Led by captains David White, Ben Courvieau, and Andy Prezkop, the team won four more games than the prior year, and beat the otherwise undefeated league champions Rivers School. Before the season even started, the team had the opportunity of taking a trip to London which helped build team unity and gave the new players a chance to meet their future teammates. It proved to be a great time on and off the field. Competing in a highly competitive league, the team was forced to play their best against even the teams in the bottom of the standings, evident in the close win against St. Marks. While we weren't able to make it to the playoffs this year, the team next year should have enough momentum to carry onto the New England Championship. ~ Captain David White '02

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls Varsity Field Hockey team had its best season since 1985. High lights of the season included some very competetive games late in the season against the top teams in the league. GDA rebounded from many tough losses to go on to tie their next two games and then to beat Middlesex. It was here that goalie Angela Rappoli kept the top scoring teams frustrated. The Govs were helped out by the outstanding play of Moira Talbot and Shannon Falvey, who earned All League Honors. All League Honorable Mentions went to Stirling Winder and Ashley Foley for their key contributions throughout the season. This was one of the best and most memorable years. The three of us would like to thank our wonderful coaches and the best group of girls ever because this was a great season full of fun, excitement, and victory.

The varsity football team had a season that will be remembered by many for a long time to come. We had many achievements this year which included defeating our archrivals, Belmont Hill and Brooks, defeating the previously unbeaten St. Sebastian's team, finishing with an overall record of 7-2 and becoming the undisputed Class B New England Champions with a convincing 40-14 victory over heavily favored Tabor Academy. The team, including five All-ISL players and five Honorable Mentions, worked hard from the first day of preseason to the final playoff game. OUTDOOR CLUB

The GDA Outdoor Program had another amazing season of adventures in and around the Byfield area. Under the direction of our fearless leaders Mr. Weir and Miss Campbell, these adventures included mountain biking, hiking, and horseback riding. The afternoons also featured extensive use of our new on-campus ropes course and climbing wall. Our season was culminated by an overnight camping trip in the woods of Doctor Duff's property, Oak Marsh. This year's group was filled with many newcomers to the program, some who had never even heard of S'mores before, but by the end of the season we were a tight-knit group that was a force to be reckoned with, espeically on horseback.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Women's Varsity Basketball Team captured its 2nd New England Title this year and only one game shy of winning the ISL. The team returned with its original "sophomore six," making it complete. The co-captains Vanessa and Anabel, along with seniors Ashley, Jackie, Melissa, and Genna provided the team with intensity and heart. Vanessa, Ashley, and Anabel were all selected for All Star teams and also managed to score their 1000th points this year. In the tough match-up against Worcester Academy in the championship game, Ashley earned Tournament MVP and was also MVP for the team. Our team prides itself on our competitiveness and without it we would not have gotten as far as we did- never lose that edge! The Men's Varsity Basketball Team enjoyed a very successful season. Even though the team was very young and very inexperienced, everyone contributed and worked together to make the season great. During the last weeks of the season, the Governors saw themselves with a chance to once again make the New England playoffs. The Govs took advantage of their chance and won 7 out of 8 games to finish the regular season. The win over Belmont Hill in the regular season finale was a major highlight. Although the Govs came up short against the eventual champions in the 1st round of the playoffs, the team still felt like they had achieved something. The outlook for the years to come is strong, with the Govs sporting many underclassmen and great coaching. Even though the team experienced hard times throughout the winter, their perseverance led them to a great season and a great time. Good luck next year. ~Captain Ben Bizier '02

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

The Varsity Women's Hockey team started off the season with two big wins against St. Mark's (1-0) and St. Paul's (3-2). GDA faced some of the toughest competition late in the season, but managed to play well against some of the top teams in the league. Concentrating on small victories towards the end of the season, the team put forth a valiant effort to shut out Lawrence Academy in the first period of play, and later repeated the same accomplishment against Nobles in the third period. While the team's 4 seniors will be greatly missed next year, a fairly young GDA team will look to the skills of several rising junior and sophomore players, as well as the talent and strong leadership of 6 rising seniors. Varsity Women's Hockey can expect to be a force in the 2002-2003 season. Special thanks to Erin House and Panda Gilmore for another great season as managers. We really appreciated your support throughout the season. ~Captains Jen Arno and Shannon Falvey '03

This year, the Men's Varsity Hockey team had a great season. We had the best record since we made the jump to Division 1 in 1992. The biggest part of this success was work ethic: every player on the squad showed up on a daily basis ready to give his all. Along with overall team success, there were a bunch of great individual efforts. Captain Gabe Winer was named the team MVP for the second time in his career, and given the Flood Shield by the ISL. He also made the All-ISL team for his third consecutive year. Captain Pete Langella made the All-ISL team for the second year in a row, while his defense partner Davey Mullins garnered All-ISL status for the first time. Senior Rob Curran was named the team's "Un-sung Hero" and Captains JJ Morrissey and Ben Corriveau had great seasons as linemates and leaders. Good luck next year trying to make the playoffs and have fun!

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team had yet another in credible season, going undefeated and winning both the EIL and New England titles for the second year in a row. Everyone played hard all season and contributed to the success we had. The team was so much fun and we always had a great time. The seniors Nicole, Angela, and Rachel directed the team with outstanding leadership. Emily Moore recieved MVP for her team at the EIL tornament and Nicole Robbat was the MVP All Tournament player at the EIL. Both Emily and Nicole shared the co-MVP award for their team. Kendra, Gabby, Kelsey, Brooke, and Maria worked hard all season and will be great senior leaders next year. Emily and Anika also contributed so much to the team. A very special thanks to Suzie for being the best manager ever. Good luck to next year's team: fight hard, play tough, and keep the streak going! Go Govs! ~ Nicole Robbat

Graves/Kelsey- 11th out of 12

The record of the 2001-2002 Wrestling team did not always reflect the hard work and the commitment this team gave. Even with three senior captains (Raphael Rodriguez, Adam Barbaro, and Alex Harris), as well as many returning wrestlers, the team had many newcomers. They quickly overcame inexperience through hard work and determination to end the season on a positive note. Many of this year's losses were close matches where the whole team went out and gave a great performance. At the Graves Kelsey tournament Raphael Rodriguez took 1st place in the 215 lbs. weight class, Adam Barbaro 5th place at 160 lbs, Jon Smith 5th place at 130 lbs, and Garret Lyons 5th at 189 lbs. Raphael especially had an outstanding year, placing 3rd in New England and winning two matches at the national tournament in February. Good luck to next year's team and their captain, Garret Lyons. ~ Captain Alex Harris '02

SKI CLUB

This year Ski Club had one of the most competitive seasons in years. The mighty mountain of Bradford had become a dream as we moved up in leagues, to the steep, rock faced Nashoba Valley. Not only had the mountain changed, but so had our leadership yet again. We are now led by Ms. Berton and the agile Dr. Scheintaub. Ski Club also suffered in the fact that we lacked the key ingredient of snow this year. Throughout all these obstacles, Ski Club maintained its competitive edge and managed to win all of its matches and remained the undisputed New England Champions. Next year's captains remember to keep the spirit alive, don't fall into any rivers, and NO FRESHMAN! ~ Shane MacDonald '02

DANCE

The 2001-2002 winter dance season at GDA arguably proved to the best season of dance ever at the academy. The dancers, a group that had a range of skills and styles, learned hip-hop, jazz, ballet, modern, and movement theatre and worked hard during the two hour rehearsals, six days a week. The production of "Sway" on March 1 and 2 showcased the great choreography of Susan Atwood and Sarah George, as well as the choreography of seniors Rachelle Dennis, Heather Jameson, and Francesca DeMeo. The show also included a dance with six faculty children which was a big hit with the audience. With the brand new performing arts center, a beautiful dance studio, two fantastic, committed, and talented instructors, and thirteen passionate dancers of all grades, the culminating performances clearly showed how much the dance program at GDA has improved and how much farther it will go in the future. ~Rachelle Dennis '02

DRAMA

Oklahoma! proved to be GDA's most elegantly executed musical yet. With the luxury of a well-equipped brand new performing arts center, the actors had every chance to shine. The 2001 winter musical experienced many changes in this year's season; the style of a new theatrical director, Mr. David Neil, a new musical director, Mrs. Georgia Bills, and a new choreographer, Mrs. Cheryl Schwind. Our new technical director, Mr. Joe Repczynski, brought our stage to life and Mr. Wann even rented real Oklahoma! style costumes. Mr. Wann focused his work behind-the-scenes this year while still offering his artistic and professional advice to his young and admiring actors. These changes, proved to enhance the winter musical program, and GDA's talent poured over the stage and into the audience's hearts. Oklahoma! was an outstanding show, and more great things should be expected of GDA's future aspiring actors and actresses. ~Diana Cousins '02

SOFTBALL

The biggest highlight of this spring season was the excitment over the birth of Lilly Kingsbury. The team missed the Missus, but with the help of Coach Kingsbury and Coach Sagalyn we came up with some major wins. The opening game against Pingree was a fine example of the potential of the softball team, but we had a difficult time pulling together for the next few games. The team dynamics were outstanding, however, regardless of the scores. The seniors were key to the outcome of many of these games with Captain Angela Romano as a power hitter and centerfielder, Captain Gabe Lipman as an outstanding catcher, and Allison Sparks, a stunning second base woman. The softball team was always ready for a challenge and every member played fair and fun games and won the respect of every opponent. Maybe next year the scores will mirror the dedication and spirit of the wonderful girls on the team.

The varsity baseball team was involved in an intense spring season that may appear to have been a losing one, although we were extremely excited about our progress in bonding as a team. We began the season with an exciting win over St. George's and a great game with Groton. Even though we had some trouble pulling togeter by the end of the season, all of the games were marked by a strong will to play and a desire to have fun. The seniors on the team came up swinging strong and were the backbone of the team. Allen Cooper, a junior, supported the team with his impecible pitching and recieved All-League honors. The powerful plays that occured frequently during the season will hopefully be replayed next year as we gain members from the amazing Junior Varsity team. These younger players pulled off a record-breaking season with 13 wins, 2 losses and more than 1 no hitters. This wealth of talent will be welcome next year.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

The season began strong, and ended with the same intensity. We dominated almost every game, thanks to the awesome players and great coaches. The opposing teams found themselves face-to-face with a strong, determined team with a desire to be the best. Most teams were overwhelmed by this powerful playing and commitment to the sport. Three teams found themselves trailing by over 10 at the end of the second half, and seven more also found their place behind the Governors. Not only were the scores impressive, but the players themselves were too. Delia Cox was voted League MVP, as well as recieving All League Honors. Jackie Swansburg was an awesome goalie, (as always), and both she and Mel Bourque also recieved All League Honors. A team is not made by only the few players acknoleged by name though, and everyone, especially the other seniors, worked hard to make the season an exceptional one.

The 2002 season proved to be one of great success for the Men's Lacrosse team. The team's record of 14 wins and 1 loss was the best in school history. Led by a talented and mature group of 10 seniors, this team worked hard from the very beginning in order to reach their potential. Tabor fell early on as the Red Dogs thoroughly outplayed their opponents, and took the Tabor-GDA Challenge Cup. The Gillespie-Anderson Cup was also snatched by the Governors in a victory over St. Paul's. The superb midfield play of co-captains JJ Morrissey and Ben Corriveau set the stage for Taylor Brown, who proved hard to stop on offense, scoring 62 goals this season. The Dogs only loss came at the hands of Middlesex. However, they rallied for the next games, beating many other strong teams, and earned us an ISL Championship, shared with Middlesex who also had one loss. It was the first ISl Championship for a GDA Men's Lacrosse team. Taylor Brown and JJ Morrissey were voted All America. Brown was also voted co-MVP of the league. Many other players had key roles on the team as well. It was a special year. One full of great memories.

WOMEN'S TRACK

The GDA Track has not seen a season like this in years. New and old talent thrived this season as old records fell and new standards raised the bar for everyone. The spectacular seniors led the way. Four year veterans Kristina Young and Jocelyn Scheintaub backed up the leading scorers as co-captain Lucinda Boyce broke the triple jump record and Vanessa Russell broke five school records: the high jump, 800M, 400M, 200M, and the 4x400 relay team along with co-captain Julia Tataronis '03, Laura Ellison '03, and Liz Dipple '03. Sophmore Jessie Long broke both the discus and shot put records. At the ISTA league meet she was named the Field Event MVP with a first place finish in the shot put, discus, and javelin and was also the New England Champion in the shot put. Fellow teammate Jackie Ward '04 ended her first track season as the 2002 New England champ in the discus. Sophomore Lesley Clunie had an amazing season picking up many first place points through the season in the 1500M and 3000M. Teammate Liz Dipple '03 claimed the New England title in 300M hurdles for the second year in a row. It was quite a season for GDA girls' track and we can't wait to see what next season holds in store.

A large number of athletes turned out for track this year, and the team was fortunate to have a total of eight coaches. The men's team performed very well throughout the season and finished fourth in the New England Prep School Division III Championships at St. George's School. GDA was only five points behind the third place team and eight points behind the second place team. A number of athletes contributed to the team's success at the Championships. Rafael Rodriquez, one of the team's captains, placed first in the discus throw. Antonio Valverde, another team captain, finished second in the 100 meter dash and third in the 200 meter dash. Dante DeMeo placed second in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles and fourth in the 110 meter high hurdles. The 4x100 meter and 4x400 meter relay teams both finished third at the Championships. WOMEN'S TENNIS

One thing that the women's varsity tennis team learned this year was that winning isn't everything. This young team composed of freshman Ruth Splaine, sophomores Sarah LeBlanc and Katherine Paul, and juniors Eden Gudonis, Kate Hugo, Jackie Ross and Erin Shedd struggled through a season of mostly losses. But all seven girls, led by their supportive coach, David Moore, held their heads high and made the best of their situation by creating an atmosphere of fun. It was a very memorable season due to Ruth's "good draws" and certain "wars", Sarah and Katherine's one game victory at New England's, Eden's wild stories, Kate's string-breaking spree, Jackie's left-handed win, and Erin's pretty outfits. Each individual's improvement can be attributed to a lot of hard work and great advice from Coach Moore. The entire team will be returning next year ready to repeat another season of fun - and hopefully some more wins. You go girls - work it!! ~Captain Jackie Ross '03

Eric Schroeder "turned on the jets"
This year and won lots of sets!
One-of-thirty's no fun,
But, hey, twenty-one
Is damn close to "As Good as it Gets!"

I'm pleased to write one of my jingles
For Dave Spector at Number Two Singles.
He wears — funny fact is! —
His school clothes to practice,
So his game shorts won't have any wrinkles!

"Day-Foo," Number Three, is YOUR man
If you want a big forhand. This Mormon
Throws "pool party bashes"
As wild as his smashes,
And of wives he'll have two-three-or-four, man!

Two subjects I think we should broach
With Number Four, Tom Roche,
Are how his feet are sticking
To the court, and his dissing
of the offered hand opposing coach!

"Slow but sure" at the Number Five slot,
Brad Ferry has grown quite a lot.
Now he's six-foot-two
He's begun to chew
Up the league with his "beague" topspin shot!

Pat Dempsey's service "rocks"
And like MacEnroe's it shocks
With its devilish swerve;
But beyond that, "the nerve"
Of this guy to show up in black socks!

Who wins prizes for "ball-toss lowness"?
Alex Whitney. But oh, the bonus
To be "quik-pixed"
To play in the Mixed
With the smashing Eden Gudonis!

Andrew Weinstein's volleys are grand,
Though less certain is his command
Of groundies! And lo!
There for the show,
Mom and Sister are ALWAYS on hand!

"Vin-Ho," "In Ho Yoon," and "In Who" —
All three know, on the courts, what to do.
But "oolala, oolala
This stud from Korea
Has a serve much too wild to be true!

The varsity golf team had an incredible spring season marked with great sportsmanship and incredible playing. They were regular season ISL champs with their outstanding record, recieving the Walworth Trophy for their amazing abilities. Even though they finished second in the ISL match, the golf team's dedication and love of the game was noted by the league and they recieved the ISL Team Sportsmanship Award. This impressive team won many other prestigious awards including the Witherspoon Cup in the season's opening match against Andover and Exeter, and first place in the 86th annual Eastern Interscolastic Tournament for the second year in a row. The varsity golf team was led by captain Tim Johnson, the #1 player on the GDA team, individual winner at the Eastern Tournament, and recognized as an All-League player. Jeff Black and Phil Mcinnis were also awarded All-League status. The team will miss graduating seniors, Aaron Parola, Matt Macoul, and Sam Arnold.

DRAMA

The spring drama production, You Can't Take It With You by George Kaufman and Moss Hart, and directed by Mr. David Neil, was fabulous. The 1936 comedy featured Susie Valverde as Alice, a beautiful girl who is being courted by Tony, the boss's son, played by Mike Davitt. The problem is that Alice is part of an eccentric, if harmless, family. Tony's father (Mr. Searles) and his wife Miriam (Danielle Carroll) show up for dinner on the wrong night to meet Alice, and are confronted with the wacky family, Grandpa (Doc Bradley), who collects snakes, Alice's mother Penny (Erin Giblin), a wishful playwrite now working on a painting of Mr. De Pina (Wilson Tung) decked out in Roman toga, Alice's father Paul (Mike Askenase) making fireworks in the basement, Alice's sister Esse (Kristen DeForest) dancing about and trying to get people to eat her dreadful candy which her husband Ed (Sam Harvell), a xylophone player, hawks with samples of his home printing, and Mr. Kolenkov (Phil Anderson), Esse's Russian dance teacher, exhorting everyone to live life to the fullest. The whole thing was completely nuts and thoroughly enjoyed by audience and cast alike.

Commencement

Commencement

Who would have imagined that on June 7th of our final year at Governor Dummer Academy we d be surrounded by our family faculty and friends in the Field House? No longer were people trying to stay undercover to avoid being sunburned; this time everyone was desperately trying to stay dry and warm. While the rain may have at first put a damper on the morning s events in the end we were all racing over the Mansion House wall while our beloved teachers encouraged us on by shouting "Keep going!" The joyous celebration that followed only proved that perhaps our class was destined to graduate in the rain. We ve managed to overcome every plausible obstacle that could come our way and in all situations we ve thrived as a group. This year s Commencement will not be remembered for its weather but for the class that went through it. Congradulations Class of 2002!

MORSE FLAG

The Morse Flag was first awarded 88 years ago at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Reverend Glenn Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and trustee of the Academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag that has flown over the school during the year can be given to the recipient.

We celebrate, coincidentally this year, thirty years of women at GDA, and gather today to join the faculty in celebrating a young woman who exemplifies the best that this school has stood for and valued for two hundred and thirty-nine years. She has been at GDA for four years. Her scholastic record, from the very first semester of her 9th-grade year, when her GPA was 4.1, is extraordinarily impressive. Not only has she earned high honor roll every one of her eight semesters here, she has never earned anything less, in any semester or any quarter, than an average unweighted grade-point average of 3.7, meaning that the cumulative average of all of her courses has never been less than A-. A few B+'s diversify her transcript in the sophomore and junior years, but she finished this year, as she did her 9th-grade year, with nothing but A's- and she accomplished it this year in four advanced placement courses plus statistics! But you would never know, from her, of her accomplishments, scholastic and otherwise. From her 9th-grade year as a boarder in Moody, to her leadership this year as a proctor in Boynton, her leadership is truly exemplary: Unassuming, unpretentious, unaffected. She just does it, earning respect and recognition without show or fanfare. Those recognitions, starting with her winning the GDA Science Department's "Only Connect" contest in the 9th grade, have steadily accumulated: An Excellence in Education Award from the Newburyport Five Cents Savings Bank her sophomore year; The Holy Cross Book Prize, the Dartmouth Book Prize, the Bausch & Lomb Medal, and a One-In-A-Hundred Mark of A+ from the National Writing board for her History research paper last year on Hannah Jumper and the Mid-19th-century Temperance Movement in her hometown of Rockport, Massachusetts; And this year, a National Merit Scholarship Commendation, Membership to GDA's Honor Society, and election to Cum Laude Society. "A quiet soul," as she was characterized in a citation accompanying one of her awards last year, this young woman has also steadily grown confident about giving voice to her intellect and compassion in this community. Always an unimpeachable example of industry and integrity, she has become, too, an active leader: A dorm proctor, Vice-President and then President of our Harvard Model Congress Club, a member of a student-faculty committee that recently evaluated our Boarding Life Program, a charter member and captain this year of GDA's Afternoon Outdoor Program, and a student representative to the Discipline Committee. Next year, triangulating southward from Byfield and her home near the extremity of Cape Ann, she will continue her studies in Cambridge, at Harvard University. With respect and appreciation for her exemplary character, record, and legacy in our school, the Faculty awards the Flag that has flown over the school in this, its 239th year, the 2002 Morse Flag, to:

Marienna Harnden Murch

THORNDIKE HILTON CUP

The Thorndike Hilton Cup was established by the class of 1919 in memory of their classmate, Thorndike Hilton. It is awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the senior class.

This young woman was aptly described by her advisor as "the rare student who works hard for the sake of learning, the student for whom curiosity resembles hunger, the student for whom the question is often more interesting than the answer." Her Advanced Placement BC Calculus teacher credits her with an intuitive understanding of calculus matched by an exceptional desire to succeed at the highest level. Her AP senior English teacher admires her keen analysis, adept reading and fine writing. In her four years at Governor Dummer all of her teachers have raved about her talent, her commitment to learning, and her ability to succeed. By far she was the hardest student for our office to schedule a course load. We simply could not convince her to take fewer courses or a more reasonable number of accelerated and Advanced Placement courses. Much to our amazement, she always returned to our office with a means by which to solve the dilemma and take the desired courses. The recipient of the Yale Book Prize and the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Medal during her junior year, she crowns her four year academic reign at Governor Dummer with the coveted Thorndike-Hilton cup. The highest ranking scholar of the class of 2002, from Byfield, Massachusetts, is

Jocelyn Rae Scheintaub

ACADEMY PRIZE

There are two prizes which are awarded by vote of the entire faculty: One is the Morse Flag, the other, the Academy Prize. Upon retirement of Headmaster Ted Eames in 1959, the underclassmen of the Academy endowed the already existing Academy Prize so that henceforth at each Commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes."

This young man's personal accomplishments are considerable. He is a committed scholar, inquisitive, conscientious and determined. He was selected to be a dormitory proctor because he is reliable, trustworthy and generous with his friendship. His athletic accomplishments boarder on the legendary. Pound for pound he was far and away the best all around athlete in the Independent School League. He has served his Academy tirelessly as the Head Tour Guide for the admissions office. His poise, presence and candor has provided invaluable assistance to numerous families as they try to select the appropriate school for their child. By force of his personality and character, he has helped to set a positive tone in this community. He has been a symbol of dependability, open mindedness and maturity. His integrity and sense of fairness has been a model for younger students. His words carry weight and credibility. Peers follow his lead instinctively. There is nothing calculating, self-serving, self aggrandizing or pretentious in what he does. He gives an honest effort for an honest day's work. He has truly been a force for good for his venerable school. With respect, appreciation and pride, I award the Academy prize to:

James McGovern Morrissey

PETER W. BRAGDON HEADMASTER'S CUP

Peter W. Bragdon Headmaster's Cup is given to that senior, who, in the judgment of the headmaster, has served the mission of the school.

This talented young woman has been a force for good throughout her four years at this Academy. She has taken the mission of the school to heart, directing her considerable energy and enthusiasm toward service to others. She was a head of Special Olympics and co-president of Project Outreach, a head tour guide and a peer advisor, and a member of the Discipline Committee. Whether raising donations for a food kitchen, organizing Special Olympics activities or considering the difficult questions of discipline, she has given much of herself to this school and the wider community. Within GDA's walls, this young woman has excelled in diverse activities. She is the heart and soul of the dance program and a major contributor to elite musical groups like the Nightingales and Advanced Chorus. She played Little Red Riding Hood's grandmother at the Holyoke Drama Festival—in German—and she represented her school and country well as part of the German Exchange Program. A fierce competitor in track, she was a member of the 4 x 100 relay team that won recognition at the prestigious Penn Relays. She demonstrated the same determination and effort in her academic study, where she consistently earned honors and high-honors grades in a rigorous academic program that routinely included six or more courses. To all of this she brings humor, a positive outlook and a genuine interest in others. She has put her heart and soul into all her activities and, as a result, she has made a remarkable contribution to this Academy. She truly has made both our little world and the larger world better and more enjoyable places. This remarkable young woman has brightened many days for many people during her four years at GDA. It is a privilege to award the Peter Bragdon Headmaster's Cup to:

Heather Sherbs Jameson

BARRISKIL PRIZE

To a senior who has made an outstanding contribution in the field of music at the Academy.

This year's recipient of the Barriskill Prize in Music is arguably one of the most talented musicians ever to attend the academy. She has studied piano both here and at the New England Conservatory of Music. She has performed some of the most accomplished, virtuostic and challenging compositions ever heard on our stage. She plays with style, grace, passion and integrity. Thoreau once observed "when I hear good music, I fear no danger, I am invulnerable, I see no foe. I am related to the earliest times and to the latest." Thoreau's words resonate with those of us priviledged to have heard her remarkable and memorable performances. The winner of 2002 Barriskill Prize is from Pusan, South Korea:

Won Hye Chung

PETER MARSHALL FRENCH TROPHY

To a student at any level whose perseverance, sportsmanship and generous spirit on the playing field, regardless of distinction as an athlete, represent the highest standards of participation.

A letter winner in volleyball and softball, the recipient of this award is a truly dedicated athlete – an athlete who chooses to participate for the love, not the glory, of sport. This young woman, who despite chronic knee pain, would give 110% every day on the court or field. Understanding the importance and value of strong team cohesiveness and dynamics, she leads by example both physically and mentally and always with a smile. This young woman's character, determination, and enthusiasm make her a most deserving recipient of this award. The recipient of the Peter Marshall French Memorial Trophy is:

Angela Carmen Romano

GOODWIN ATHLETIC PRIZE

To a senior who by his athletic achievement and sportsmanship has brought the greatest honor to his school during the past year. The recipient of this award is arguably the most gifted athlete in the school. When the game is on the line, he is the one competitor you want on the field. He is liked, respected and admired by teammates and opponents alike. It was apparent from the day he first arrived that he would not accept anything less than complete effort from a teammate. He didn't have to spell it out for anyone, nor did he have to explain that he was going to be the leader on the field. By the time he graduated he had led his teams to a New England Championship in football, an ISL League title in lacrosse and a near playoff berth in the New England hockey tournament. He respects athletics for what they are; a chance to challenge himself, and the opportunity to bring honor to his team and his school. He has established a standard of athletic excellence that will be hard to emulate.

James McGovern Morrissey

ANNE MARIE MURPHY ATHLETIC AWARD

To the senior girl who, by her example and achievements in athletics, has brought the greatest honor to her school during the past year. The recipient of this award sports a long list of accomplishments. Ten varsity letters in four years, this three-sport athlete has received All-ISL League recognition in both soccer and in lacrosse. The muscle of almost every team on which she has been involved, this athlete's composure and presence on the field is undeniable. The consummate defender in all sports, she consistently renders her mark ineffective. Her considerable brawn, tremendous game sense, and remarkable quickness inspire her teammates and dazzle her spectators. Her athletic prowess will be sorely missed next year. Fortunately, those that want a chance to see this player at the Division 1 collegiate level will have only to drive to Durham, NH where this High School All-American will continue her future athletic endeavors on the Lacrosse fields at UNH.

Melissa Anita Bourque

THESPIAN AWARD

Awarded for meritorious work in the field of dramatics, for inspiring participation, providing leadership, and developing theatrical knowledge and abilities. The great English actress, Ellen Terry, once said: "An actress does not study a character with a view to proving something about the dramatist who created it. Her task is to learn how to translate this character into herself, how to make its thoughts her thoughts, its words her words." This year's recipient knows how to do this and make it look easy. She practices and performs as an actress, dancer and singer 365 days a year. If GDA had 30 productions a year, she would be in them all and still be asking for more. From her chilling debut in the fall of her freshman year as the controlling child, Mary Tilford, in The Children's Hour to her show-stopping triumph as Ado Annie in Oklahoma, she has left us all agog. She has the talent, the discipline, the ambition and the charisma to be a Broadway Star.

Diana Ashley Cousins

JOHNSON SCIENCE AWARD

The Thomas L. Johnson, II '38 prize is awarded annually to an outstanding science scholar in recognition of his or her achievements in the area of science. This prize is given in memory of Mr. Johnson, a chemist and a member of the Academy's Class of 1938. Anatole France once said that "The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards." This young woman of four years tenure at Governor Dummer Academy has made masterful artists of our faculty. Her curiosity, now awakened, ranges far and wide, apparently insatiable. She is, at present, happy to bore into the most recondite aspects of Chemistry; her questions are dazzling; her accomplishments impressive; her potential limitless. This year's winner of the Johnson Prize in Science, from Byfield, Massachusetts, is:

Jocelyn Rae Scheintaub

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION AWARD

To a senior who has shown community spirit and concern within the Academy and has displayed qualities of awareness and humanity. The 2002 recipient of this award has been a real presence on the GDA campus for four years. His involvement and his leadership in a variety of activities are true indications of his commitment to his school and to his friends. Student government, discipline committee, dorm proctor, tour guide, team captain, ADL, Epic...the list goes on. And with all of this a high honor roll performance in the classroom. He has truly been a leader for you and for the school – his sense of humor is infectious – his heart is large – his sense of loyalty will keep you and GDA connected forever. It is my great honor to present the 2002 Alumni and Alumnae Association Award to

Shane Freeman MacDonald

MERCER ART PRIZE

Awarded to that senior with exceptional creativity and originality who has maintained a primary interest in the Fine Arts, has completed with honor grades all available Studio Art and Art History courses at the Academy, and has participated in all relevent activities in search of artistic awareness and proficiency. This year's recipient of the Mercer Art Prize is a most creative and resourceful student. He is motivated by a reverence for learning and driven by a desire to better understand his world. His intellectual curiosity stimulates and elevates classroom discussion. He is a confident, independent thinker who continually attempts to produce work that is distinctive and evocative. There are only a handful of students who can match his creative skills with a camera. His images reflect his sensitivity, passion and extraordinary powers of observation. The art of photography depends on the act of seeing raised to a high level of acuteness and discrimination. Our recipient projects himself into his subject matter, identifying himself with everything in order to know it and feel it better.

Justin Thomas Reese

CUMINGS PRIZE

To a student who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit contributing to the welfare of the school. This year's recipient is the sum of many parts and gives meaningful expression to the notion of a Renaissance woman. She has excelled in a formidable academic schedule that is filled with Advanced Placement and accelerated courses. She has wrestled with questions of the cosmos and helped to advance our understanding of black holes. She has successfully mastered a variety of gymnastics apparatus winning national recognition in the process. She has enhanced our singing groups with her melodious voice. She is an accomplished artist. She has run like the wind for our track program. She brings dignity, grace, presence, enthusiasm, energy and humility to all she undertakes. All of these separate qualities and abilities unite to create a balanced and beautiful whole. She has inspired us with her talents, her goodness and her love of life. For leading us by example I am pleased to award this year's Cumings Prize to:

Francesca DeMeo

GAFFNEY PRIZE

To a senior who, in the opinion of the faculty, has been most considerate of the rights, opinions, and sensibilities of others. This young man arrived at GDA with high ideals and principles. He has never wavered in their pursuit. He has followed his heart rather than the crowd. Throughout his time at GDA, he has balanced a healthy skepticism for the status quo with an active concern for others. He has been an active force in the Jewish Fellowship, building bridges of understanding and modeling the qualities of tolerance and acceptance. His example has helped to strengthen the moral and ethical climate of our campus. He was instrumental in getting our campus recycling effort organized and operating. He has worked both in the limelight and behind the scenes to make this School and this world a better place.

Alexander Lamprey Harris

SARAH ELLEN AVALON AWARD

Awarded to that senior who through hard work, determination, and strength of character, has worked to develop his or her potential to the fullest and in so doing has been a true credit to this school. She is an exceptionally hard working student who has quietly impressed all of us with her relentless determination and her clear, steady enthusiasm. Her ability to excel in four Advanced Placement courses in her senior year is evidence of her outstanding scholarship. She is intellectually curious and appreciates learning for its own sake. Her tremendous contributions to the yearbook as co-editor of the Milestone have proven that she has few peers when it comes to dedication and reliability. Behind her modest, self-effacing and quiet demeanor is an exceptionally strong, conscientious, resourceful young woman who is a most deserving recipient of this award.

Kristen Nicole Gorham

WILKIE SERVICE AWARD

To a senior whose contributions to the community outside of the school have best demonstrated the deep concern, unfailing sympathy, and aid for which Val and Marge are affectionately remembered.

This year's recipient of the Wilkie Service Award exemplifies the GDA motto, Non Sibi Sed Aliis. He spent two afternoon seasons working as a volunteer at Turning Point, a temporary home for battered women and their children. His kindness, gentleness to the children, was most impressive. His sense of humor and playfulness made him a much anticipated presence and a positive role model for the children. He was an excellent ambassador for Governor Dummer Academy. He also has generously donated his time to on campus social service activities. He has been a regular and committed volunteer to our semi annual blood drives, serving this year as one of the heads of this effort. Special Olympics has similarly benefited from his time, energy and talent. His thoughtfulness, empathy and consideration for others at all times makes him a worthy recipient of this prize. I am pleased to present the Wilkie Service Award to:

Congratulations to The Governor Dummer Academy
Class of 2002

May you cherish the memories at GDA

The fall, winter,
spring and summer days

For with this summer
the Class of 2002 bids adieu

But never forget it was all possible because of you

Hope springs eternal for those still unsure about which way the waters of life will flow

But if one thing is for sure, use what you learned at GDA to build a better tomorrow

To the Class of 2002 and the rest of GDA: Allison and I are both so grateful for being given the opportunity to piece together the lasting images of the 2001-2002 school year. I truly believe the moments we will all remember the most clearly are those that remain freshest in our minds and I hope this yearbook does a good job of portraying those moments.

Thank you to our dedicated staff (Dan Guyton, Lindsay Clunie, Angela Rappoli, Jess Gray, Emily Block, Laura Liacos, Jake Rogers, Ali Hadden, Lindsay Marsh, Michelle Kinzie, Sarah DeForrest, Kate Shannahan, Lesley Clunie, Ben Gobin, Shane MacDonald, Rachel Manikian, Nicole Sexton, and McKenzie Jones) and especially to Jocelyn Scheintaub, without whom this yearbook would never have been completed.

To Dan and Lindsay: Thank you so much for all the hard work you put into this yearbook. You guys have so many amazing ideas and because of it I believe next year's yearbook will be truly revolutionary. Good Luck to you and remember: whatever decisions you make and whatever work you do will be that much stronger when done together.

To Mr. Oxton: This year was crazy and I hope it was the most hectic I will ever have to face. I can't imagine what this yearbook would have been without you. Allison and I both truly appreciate all the guidance you gave us and hours you spent helping us. Thank you for everything and I hope you find next year to be a little less stressful and a bit more fun.

Love Always,
Kristen

YEAR IN REVIEW
01-02

Much like Dec. 7, 1941 (the attack on Pearl Harbor), Sept. 11, 2001 also became "a day that will live in infamy."

At 8:48 a.m., a hijacked American Airlines commercial jetliner crashes into one of New York City's World Trade Center towers. At 9:05, a second plane crashes into the second tower.

As people try to evacuate, the impact and heat from the crash cause the first tower to tumble to the ground in enormous clouds of smoke and debris. The second tower collapses shortly thereafter, leaving nothing but ash, rubble and destruction for miles where one of our nation's greatest landmarks once stood.

▲ At 9:40 a.m., a third hijacked plane flies into the Pentagon, and within the hour, a fourth crashes near a wooded area in western Pennsylvania. More than 4,200 lives are lost in total.

▲ The hijackings are part of an intended multitude of terrorist attacks on America headed by Islamic radical and wanted terrorist leader Osama bin Laden and his al Qaeda terrorist network. Bin Laden had been making open threats against America for several years, demanding the U.S. withdraw from the Middle East.

"Today, our fellow citizens, our way of life, our very freedom came under attack...

Thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil, despicable acts of terror...The pictures...have filled us with...terrible sadness and a quiet, unyielding sense of anger."

In an address to the nation, President George W. Bush ▲ demands Afghanistan's ruling party (the Taliban) hand over bin Laden. The Taliban attempts to negotiate the United States' demand, saying they will not cooperate without evidence of bin Laden's involvement in the attacks. Bush states the demand is non-negotiable, and the U.S. will take retaliatory action against Afghanistan if they refuse to hand bin Laden over.

Airlines around the world suffer major setbacks, many declaring bankruptcy. Congress approves an airline assistance package that includes $15 billion in financial aid and a victim's compensation fund to limit expensive lawsuits that might bankrupt airlines like American and United.

▲ Former Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge is appointed by President Bush to head the newly created Office of Homeland Security Cabinet post, which involves coordinating and creating a strategic plan for homeland defense against future terrorist attacks.

"And tonight, the United States makes the following demands on the Taliban...These demands are not open to negotiation or discussion...This is the world's fight...the fight of all who believe in progress...tolerance, and freedom...We will rally the world to this cause by our efforts, our courage. We will not tire, we will not falter, and we will not fail."

President Bush announces plans to starve terrorist groups of all money, and signs an order to freeze all U.S. assets of suspected terrorists, ordering financial institutions do the same.

▲ After repeated refusals from the Taliban to turn over bin Laden, the U.S. and allied British forces begin launching air strikes on Afghan cities, military targets and terrorist camps.

▲ The U.S. continues bombing Afghan cities, while at the same time dropping food packages, called Humanitarian Daily Rations (or HDRs), from planes to help Afghan refugees at risk for starvation.

The World Health ▲ Organization warns Western governments to be on the alert for attacks using chemical and biological warfare.

A 63-year-old employee at the American Media building in Florida dies from inhalation anthrax, a potential agent for use in biological warfare. Several other American Media employees also test positive for anthrax.

◀ Osama bin Laden is the leader of al Qaeda, a worldwide network of terrorists, and is America's most wanted terrorist suspect. ▲ The discovery of letters containing anthrax in several states other than Florida (including D.C., N.J., N.Y., Ind., Mo., and Va.) raises the fear of bioterrorism. Traces of anthrax turn up in postal facilities around the country, and two Washington, D.C. postal workers die from the inhalation variety of the bacteria. Authorities are unable to pinpoint the letters' source, and are unsure whether they are connected to the al Qaeda terrorist attacks.

President Bush signs an anti-terrorism bill into law, giving police and intelligence agencies new powers against terrorism, including stronger penalties for harboring or financing terrorists, an increase in the number of crimes considered terrorist acts and tougher punishments for committing them. The bill also gives police new rights to secretly search people's homes and business records and to eavesdrop on suspect telephone or computer conversations.

Former Afghanistan President Burhanuddin Rabbani was recognized by most world governments as the country's legitimate ruler, even during the Taliban's reign. The Bush Administration faces accusations from many that the array of new tactics implemented with the anti-terrorism bill, including military tribunals (trials held in secret in which the judges are military officers, a two-thirds vote is enough to convict, and there is no need for proof beyond a reasonable doubt), are the worst infringement on civil liberties in decades.

▲ About 1,000 U.S. Marines move into Afghanistan to tighten the squeeze on remaining Taliban and al Qaeda leaders by limiting their movements from Kandahar, Afghanistan's second largest city and center of trade.

The Taliban surrenders the city of Kandahar, their last major stronghold. The city falls to looters after the last Taliban fighters flee the area.

▲ An American is discovered among Taliban prisoners after a violent prison revolt that killed hundreds of the prisoners as well as an American CIA officer. John Walker Lindh, a 20-year-old non-Afghan Taliban fighter (originally from California), said he joined the Taliban six months earlier after converting to Islam and "jihadi" (fighter of holy wars). Walker is returned to the U.S. to face four criminal charges, including conspiracy to kill Americans abroad. Prosecutors consider other evidence that could carry the death penalty.

▲ Hamid Karzai is named the Prime Minister of Afghanistan's interim government. The title is passed to him by former Afghanistan president, Mullah Mohammed Omar, marking the first peaceful transfer of power in Afghanista in more than two decades.

▲ A videotape is acquired by the Pentagon, showing Osama bin Laden boasting of his involvement in the Sept. 11 attacks, and rejoicing in the level of devastation "achieved" by the terrorists aboard the planes, some of whom did not even know what kind of mission they were on until they boarded the planes.

British citizen Richard Reid ▲ boards trans-Atlantic American Airlines Flight 63, and attempts to light explosives hidden in his shoes. He is subdued immediately by passengers and crew members, and sedated. The plane diverts to Boston, where Reid is arrested. He is later charged on nine counts, and it is discovered he received training in al Qaeda terrorist camps.

The U.S. military ▲ sends al Qaeda prisoners to a prison in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The detainees are questioned for information pertaining to the Sept. 11 attacks, the whereabouts of bin Laden and other attacks that may have been planned.

As the war on terrorism continues, the U.S. rallies the support of the international community. Taking the intelligence gained from prisoners as well as investigations at home, America turns attention to other terrorist havens around the world, such as Abu Sayyaf, a terrorist group in the Philippines allegedly connected with the al Qaeda network. ■

Groups

International Front for Fighting Jews and Crusades

This is a large coalition of groups dedicated to killing Americans and destroying U.S. interests worldwide. It was formed by Osama bin Laden in 1998, and includes al Qaeda (also founded by bin Laden), a network of small terrorist cells operating independently around the world, dedicated to overthrowing Middle Eastern rulers and removing westerners from Muslim countries.

The International Front is partnered with the Egyptian Islamic Jihad, or "Al Jihad." This group was established in the 1970s with the aim of overthrowing the Egyptian government and setting up an Islamic state. The group's leadership is divided between those who favor violent means and those who favor more peaceful means, particularly against U.S. targets.

Northern Alliance

The Northern Alliance is an Afghanistan rebel faction that has actively opposed the Taliban for five years. Prior to the fall of the Taliban, the Northern Alliance claimed five percent of Afghanistan, while the Taliban controlled the other 95 percent.

Abu Sayyaf

Abu Sayyaf is a smaller Islamist group fighting to establish an Iranian-style Islamic state in Mindanao, an island in the southern Philippines. The group, whose name means, "Bearer of the Sword," has ties to a number of Islamic fundamentalist organizations around the world, including Osama bin Laden's al Qaeda and Ramzi Yousef, an individual convicted of organizing the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center in New York City. Abu Sayyaf has a membership of approximately several hundred young Islamic radicals, many of whom were recruited from universities and high schools.

I.S.A.F. (Internal Security Assistance Force)

Also called the "peacekeepers," the I.S.A.F. was developed after the collapse of the Taliban to help keep peace in Afghanistan during the interim government's establishment. The peacekeepers consist of British Royal Marines as well as troops sent in by France.
